Dear Mr. Reynolds and Ms. Velasco:

Enclosed is the agency's FY 2026 Monthly Financial Report as of October 2025. The following is a narrative summary of budget adjustments during the month, budget variances, significant changes from appropriated funding, capital budget issues, and other key budget issues at this time.

Pursuant to the Article II Special Provisions, Sec. 27, schedules for FY 2026 and have been updated to align with the updated reporting structure. Also, Revenue for Object Code 3770, Administrative Penalties, is included in the Revenue Schedule for Appropriated Receipts (0666) to meet the requirements for Rider 28, Contractor Penalties, and Incentives.

BUDGET VARIANCES

Schedule 1 of this report reflects the agency's current projections for program expenditures, and the Summer Forecast for entitlement programs (Foster Care and Adoption Subsidy/PCA), Contracted Day Care services, and the Relative Other Designated Caregiver program.

This report reflects an agency deficit of $158.5 million in all funds consisting of a deficit of $140 million in General Revenue, a deficit of $18.9 million in Federal Funds and a lapse of $0.4 million of Child Support Collections appropriated receipts.

- Appropriations for which expense is projected to exceed the adjusted budget are reflected as a negative variance:
 - 0001 – General Revenue
 - 8008 – GR Title IV-E – FMAP
