

Help Stop Financial Exploitation

Taking money or property from adults with disabilities, or adults who are 65 or older, is a crime.

Know the Signs

- Unusual bank account activity, especially withdrawals or frequent checks made out to cash.
- Unpaid bills despite having funds.
- Names added to bank accounts or signature cards.
- Forged documents.
- Legal documents such as wills or loans are signed by an adult who seems incapable of understanding them.

If you suspect financial exploitation, act quickly and file a confidential report by calling 1-800-252-5400.

Learn more at ProtectTexasAdults.com.

Protect Texas Adults

